2. The Panel offers the following comments in elaboration of the above rankings.

Group A

[REDACTED] In spite of his lack of seniority he is believed to have a potential that clearly places him apart from other personnel in this grade.

Group B

[REDACTED] Has rendered an outstanding performance in his present assignment, but his entire Agency career has been practically limited to this one position. The Panel feels that the above ranking would be more meaningful if he had been assigned to other types of positions to include overseas assignment.

Group C

[REDACTED] All have considerable seniority but have previously been ranked below the highest and are presently so ranked because of lack of potential.
